

University	Aarhus University Erasmus code: DK ARHUS01
Places per year	International semester in Gynecology-Obstetrics & Pediatrics (full semester in English): 30-40 pr. semester Information about the international semester We also offer a range of summer university courses each year (July/August): Aarhus University Summer University
Academic calendar	Academic year 2019/20 Autumn semester: September 1st 2019 – January 31st 2020 (classes typically end in December, exam in January) Spring semester: February 1st 2020 – August 31st 2020 (classes typically end in May, exam in June)
Restrictions	International semester: Students must have completed at least three years of medical studies and have had considerable clinical experience to be eligible for enrollment. Prerequisites are described on the webpage Other semesters: Students who speak Danish or Nordic languages may apply to be enrolled in other semesters than the international semester. Clinical placements: Currently not possible. Freemovers: Not possible.
Language requirements	English C1 (TOEFL, IELTS, DAAD, Cambridge ESOL only).
Study plan	Students are enrolled for a full semester.
Course catalogue	General course catalogue of Aarhus University
Additional information	MRSA MRSA (Methicillin-Resistant Staphylococcus Aureus) screening is mandatory for all international students Criminal Record/Statement of previous convictions in respect of children is mandatory for all students attending the international semester. Aarhus University's webpage for International students