

Online Learning Agreement

State of play

Kristin Torp Skogedal
Marte Nørve Årvik
Sigrun Stefnisdottir

Today's programme

- Digitalisation in Europe – roadmap
- UiBs experiences with implementation of Online Learning Agreement (OLA)
- A few tips on how to get started

University of Bergen

- About 18 500 students (BA and MA)
- About 1200 incoming exchange students
- About 850 outgoing exchange students
- 4000 employees

Erasmus Student Card Initiative

Step-by-step roadmap to paperless mobility

- ✓ 2021: Online Learning Agreements
- ✓ 2022: Inter-institutional Agreements
- ✓ 2023: Nominations and Transcripts of records

Timescale dependent upon users confirming the new systems are fit for purpose!

State of play

- Possible systems
  - Erasmus+ Dashboard
  - Third-party provider
  - Own system
- Online Learning Agreements (OLA) and Digital Learning Agreements (DLA)
- Time for preparation: Digital change is cultural change

Experiences from UiB

- Outgoing: easy to guide the students – not more complicated than the paper version!
- Incoming: User guide important
- Good dialogue between the faculty and central division important

Tips for starting with OLA/DLA

- Digital experience
- Find peers/partners
- Make a pilot round
- Information flow – communication
- Sign up for webinars

More information

- Upcoming webinars on digitalisation:
<https://uni-foundation.eu/egd-webinars-2021/>
- Marte Nørve Årvik, marte.arvik@uib.no
- Kristin Torp Skogdal, kristin.skogedal@uib.no

Questions?

---

UNIVERSITETET I BERGEN